Villeneuve Students Honored At Graduation

ST. ALBERT—On Wednesday, June 24, an atmosphere of festivity, a graduation banquet and concert was held in the Villeneuve hall for six grade 10 pupils: Simone and George Savoi, Robert Lema, Gordon Frank, Leslie Albright, and Remi Soetaert.

All the Villeneuve school pupils and their parents were present. Honored guests at the banquet were Superintendent Ross and Mrs. Scott, Mayor and Mrs. William Veness of St. Albert. Mr. Aurele Durocher acted as master of ceremonies.

Borle - Brennies Families United At St. Peter's Church, Villeneuve

ST. ALBERT—St. Peter's Church, Villeneuve was the scene of a colorful spring wedding on the morning of June 15 when Grace Borle, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Borle became the bride of Dan Brennies, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brennies of Alcomdale.

Father Carter of Villeneuve officiated at the ceremony. Father T. Krosch of Strone was also present.

The bride wore a white lace over satin gown styled with long tulle point sleeves and a skirt that hung in a wide sweep of graceful folds from a fitted bodice.

Miss Melba Borle, sister of the bride and presently teaching at Blackfalds was maid of honor and her floor length gown was of mauve net. The bridesmaids: Miss Violet Brennies and Miss Doreen Borle were similarly styled gowns in yellow net and green net respectively. Little Vera Brennies, the groom's sister and Daylene Brennies, the groom's cousin and godchild complemented the charming bridal group in their pretty, floor length gowns of net and their baskets of flowers.

Mr. Alex Brennies, the groom's brother was best man and Mr. George Borle and Mr. Dave Terrell acted as ushers.

During Mass and while the register was being signed hymns were sung by Mr. George Soetaert, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Brennies and Mrs. Melvin Borle.

Following the ceremony dinner was served to about 100 guests and after an afternoon of varied entertainment, supper was served to 110 friends and relatives. The crowd then all adjourned to St. Albert Community hall where the eventful day came to a close with a very well attended dance.

An item of interest making this marriage unique was the fact that the four families most closely concerned with this ceremony all began with "B" in the surname. Brennies, Borle, Boddé (the bride's mother's maiden name) and Boshes (the groom's mother's maiden name).

The happy couple motored to the United States and British Columbia. After their honeymoon they will make their home in Alcomdale where Dan is an elevator agent.

Largest Exhibition Parade Ever Attracts Throng Of 150 Thousand

EDMONTON—Despite cloudy skies, the one hundred and fifty thousand people that jammed the parade route saw the largest and noisiest exhibition parade ever as Edmonton celebrated the opening of the 75th anniversary of summer fairs.

The two mile long parade was more than an hour passing any single point and featured the colorfully decorated floats of many city firms, members of the armed services, more than 20 bands and over one hundred horses.

A place of honor at the head of the parade went to Edmonton's police officials who sat in the first car while cars of government and civic officials followed. Other cars held exhibition officials.

The first band to pass was the massed Highland Pipe group including the famous Macintosh Girl's Pipe Band from Vernon, B.C.

Dewberry, Spruce Grove, East Edmonton and Lake Mero.

A large round of applause followed the C. Woodward Ltd. float which was a replica of the golden Coronation complete with mannequin, representing the Queen and Prince Philip. Eight grey horses and colorful footmen accompanied the float.

Parade officials were high in their praise of all who took part in the parade and of the behavior of spectators and motorists. Police had little if any difficulty in handling the huge crowd.

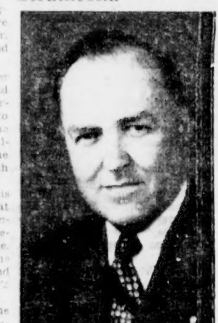

Lightning Strikes Vimy Elevators

ST. ALBERT—On a recent afternoon when Bert Sumner was at Vimy, lightning struck the UGG and Alberta Pacific elevators and blew out two transformers.

Fire started in two places of the UGG, one in the cupola and one in the spout leading to the annex. Quick action on the part of the agents and those present prevented a serious fire.

A night watch was kept on both elevators.

The Story Behind "Goliath," World's Largest Hippopotamus

Wallace & Clark Wild Animal Circus prides itself upon presenting an outstanding feature attraction each year to the American public. The elephant herd of Wallace & Clark Circus was contracted last winter by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Studios to work in a picture entitled "Soldiers Three," and at that time, the manager of the circus had an opportunity to meet Mr. George Emerson, head animal trainer of MGM studio. During the course of conversation, Mr. Wallace mentioned that he was looking for a feature for 1953. Mr. Emerson informed him that on one of his trips to the Upper Nile River in Africa for his studio he had seen an enormous bloodsucking hippopotamus, too large and too vicious to be used in picture work, and through Mr. Emerson's cooperation, contact was made with Mr. Henry Trefflich, wild animal dealer, who sent a special expedition to Africa to bring this giant beast to America. The circus immediately began construction of a 28-foot all-steel cage, even before the news of Goliath's capture had reached America. The circus arrived in Los Angeles, California, on circus day in Morinville on Thursday, August 27, Wallace & Clark cordially invites everyone to see this monstrous beast.

CANADIANS AT THE CORONATION

Millions of Canadians now living will likely not see another Coronation in their lifetime. Most of us didn't have an opportunity to see it in person but to those lucky countrymen who did fly or sail across the ocean for the event of June 2 it will remain a lifetime memory.

THREE FAMOUS SOLDIERS

AMONG the contingent of Canadian Army personnel taking part in the Coronation were these three famous commanders: Lt.-Col. J. R. "Big Jim" Stone, formerly of Alberta, now of Salmon Arm, B.C.; Lt.-Col. Paul Triquet, VC of Quebec; and Lt.-Col. Cecil Merritt, VC of Victoria.

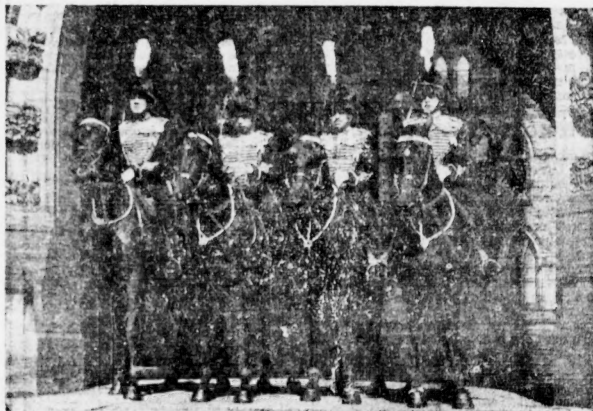

FOURTEEN Canadian airwomen were selected to take part in the Coronation parades. Selected on the basis of distribution, proficiency, and appearance, this opportunity of seeing the famous pageant is a chance in a lifetime. Here one lucky lassie is shown packing her kit and the civilian clothes she will wear on furlough in England.

MAYOR CHARLOTTE WHITTON of Ottawa was among those who saw the Queen crowned. Here she models the uniform she wore at the Coronation.

CANADIAN MOUNTED ESCORT FOR THE QUEEN

BESIDES the famed group of RCMP, the Queen and her Consort were escorted by a detachment of Royal Canadian Horse Artillery. The group selected were all Korean veterans and were trained for their escort duty by the R.C.M.P.

LETTER TO LOUISA

Wife Who Deserts Husband And Children Refuses To Return Home

DEAR LOUISA: My wife has deserted her home, her husband and her children for the second time in 12 months. We have eight dear children, aged from 1 1/2 years to 11 years. She writes me as though she longs for the children and wants to come back but she doesn't do it. She is too interested in other men and during the past three months has kept herself at some secret place where she has a job. It seems impossible to live with her without her co-operation. What should I do?

VERY UNDECIDED

ANSWER: As it seems impossible for you to arrange for your wife to return to your home and make a home for you and the children, you should plan your life and that of your family without her.

If you are able to engage a full-time housekeeper to look after your children you should do so. Hire a matronly, motherly type of woman who will take loving care of your children and teach them to respect the good and Christian motives of life.

If for financial or other reasons you are unable to hire a full-time housekeeper you should discuss the problem with the Children's Aid Society. They can make arrangements to have the children placed in good homes and leave you free to work at the important job of making a living for yourself and your children.

Some day your wife will get tired of running around the country and will want to come back home and take on the responsibility ties of wife and mother. Then your family can be happily re-united as it should be.

LOUISA.

Portrait Of Famous Missionary Received By Church

EDMONTON — Famous Roman Catholic missionary, Father Lacombe whose work and influence were a great contribution to the peaceful growth of the Canadian west will have his memory honored anew at his shrine in St. Albert.

Archbishop J. H. Macdonald of Edmonton accepted on behalf of the church in Alberta an oil painting of the late missionary who died in 1916 in his 89th year.

The picture was a gift of the Donald Cromie family of Vancouver, who were persuaded to make the gift by Hon. W. C. Woodward, former lieutenant-governor of B.C. and president of Woodward's stores. The picture was presented by T. K. Campbell, manager of the Edmonton store, at a luncheon at the Macdonald Hotel recently.

The portrait was painted by the late V. A. Long in 1916, the year of Father Lacombe's death.

SUMMER FIELD DAYS AND FAIRS

The season of agricultural Field Days and Fairs is with us again. These summer events provide an opportunity for farmers to secure the latest and best information available on new farm practices, new crop varieties, and new methods of controlling weeds, plant diseases and insect pests.

Field Days. During the next few months a number of Field Days on special farm topics will be held at the various Experimental Farms and Illustration Stations throughout the Prairie Provinces. Short Courses and Field Days will also be conducted at the provincial Schools of Agriculture. In addition, the provincial Departments of Agriculture will hold numerous Field Days and Demonstrations. The common aim of all these events is, through field trips and demonstrations, to promote new, sound farm practices leading toward the solution of major crop production problems. Tremendous developments and advances in agriculture are now taking place. Consequently, farmers should make every effort, sometime during the summer months, to visit their nearest Experimental Farm, Illustration Station, or provincial Agricultural School, or to attend an Agricultural Field Day.

Country Fairs. Then there is the Agricultural Fair. A day at the Fair can, of course, be devoted entirely to entertainment, or it can be made extremely valuable in an educational way. True, the Grandstand, the side shows, and other amusements are a necessary part of the modern country Fair, but they are not, and should not be considered, as important as the educational features of the Fair. Be sure and visit the various displays and exhibits at your local Fair. You will find them not only attractive and interesting, but instructive as well. And don't forget, your local Fair needs and deserves your fullest support.

HERE'S HEALTH

"If I eat five small meals a day I find it best," says Granny May. "It tends to ease the work impact. On one's now old digestive tract."

Dept. of National Health and Welfare

Health Unit Notes

At this time of the year when hot weather demands a different kind of daily diet it is a good time to mention a few things about the different factors which are required in the normal human food intake. A deficiency of any vital item in the diet can lead to deficiency diseases just as surely as invasion of the body by a germ can cause illness.

Proteins are essential for body growth and the formation of "new parts" necessitated by wear and tear. The best sources of protein are: fish, poultry, meat, milk, cheese, eggs, nuts and dried peas or beans.

Minerals . . . about fourteen are important to the body but a lack of calcium, phosphorus, iron and iodine cause easily recognizable diseases. Calcium and phosphorus help to build strong bones and healthy teeth. Milk and cheese are the chief sources of calcium, while phosphorus is also supplied by egg yolk, fish and cereals. Iron is essential in the formation of the red blood cells and women and children usually need more than men. Good sources of iron are: liver, kidney, heart, egg yolk, molasses, dried fruits, whole grain cereal, dark green leafy vegetables and maple syrup. Iodine in very small amounts, indeed as in iodized table salt prevents simple goitre.

Water . . . the body is like a big chemical factory . . . it must have some water every day to carry on its manufacturing processes.

Vitamins . . . many people are vitamin conscious today but remember that science probably does not yet know all the vitamins which the body needs so the most sensible thing to do is eat foods which provide us with a good ration of all the known vitamins. Such foods are: milk, butter, fresh fruit, vegetables, whole grain cereals and some meat.

Just a word about scabies, as the health nurses are often asked about this trouble. It is an itchy skin disease caused by a small parasite which burrows into the unbroken skin. It occurs most frequently on the hands and arms but may sometimes be found on the trunk and legs. The itching is most noticed at night when the child is in bed and warm; this is the time when the parasite goes deeper into the skin layers to lay its eggs. Itching is often quite intense and the child scratches so much that his finger nails may cause secondary infection that can be more serious than the original parasitic infection. Scabies is readily spread by personal contact. The treatment is fairly simple and you will need advice on the proper care of the bedding, sleeping garments, and undressing of the infected child. Nude Woman Climbs Into Neighboring Tree While On Night's Sleep-Walk

ENID, Okla. — A 27-year-old Enid housewife, who sleep walks at midnight when the moon is full, was found nude picking leaves 20 feet up in a tree.

Police answered a call from her distraught husband, who was unable to find his wife.

He told authorities his wife often walked in her sleep and it was always when the moon is full and around midnight.

Police reported the following events:

The husband found his wife scabies or you may do more harm than good. Also remember that this disease is usually seen in children but can spread to the adult member of the family.

DDT in the home . . . be careful, it is poison and don't use it when food is exposed. Flies seem to be killed more effectively if you use a brand of insecticide containing pyrethrum as well as DDT.

missing from her bed shortly after midnight.

He searched the neighborhood and was unable to find her. Alarmed, he called Enid police who also started searching the area. The woman was spotted in the tree as a full moon illuminated the weird scene.

The woman, still asleep, was nude and picking leaves while she balanced on a limb 20 feet in the air. The fire department was called and rescuers working silently so that the woman wouldn't be startled, stretched a life net under the tree.

The husband then climbed the tree, carefully wrapped his shirt around his wife and gently awakened her.

She fell into the net and he followed, grabbing his frightened wife before she could run off and hurt herself.

The search for truth is the highest form of human endeavor.

One day we went to a picnic and I was wearing a pair of gaudy slacks and blouse.

A few of us girls arranged a team and we were playing against the boys. I hit the ball and was running to first base when all of a sudden my sister says, "There goes her gaudy bag," I sure was embarrassed.

A young lady came into my shop the other day and stood scanning the toy shelf with a very puzzled expression on her face. Finally she came out carrying a toy egg beater—with bowl attached. She said "Well, this must be it."

Her young sister had been very explicit about the birthday present she wanted. She had described it as "something that went round and round and sat on a jar."

THE LIGHTER SIDE

A doctor was diagnosing the complaint of a pretty young girl. "You've got acute appendicitis," he said at last. The girl sat up indignantly. "Say, don't get fresh," she said. "I want to be examined, not admitted."

"So you let your husband carry a lachrymator?"

"Oh, just to humor him. He likes to show it to his friends to let them see how independent he is—but it doesn't fit the door!"

Fair Patient: "They tell me, doctor, you are a perfect lady killer."

Doctor: "Oh, no—no, no! I assure you, my dear madam, I make no distinction between the sexes."

"Is your husband fond of home cooking?"

"Oh, yes, we always dine at a restaurant that makes a specialty of it."

"I can't imagine how you get money out of your husband."

"Oh, I simply say I'm going back to mother, and he immediately hands me the fare."

Doctor: "Tell your wife not to worry about the slight deafness. It's merely an indication of advancing years."

Husband: "Er, doc, would you mind telling her yourself?"

Why Waste the Money?

Sideshow "You said you'd give me a check for $25,000 when I married your daughter."

"Why certainly. For $25,000 I'd give anybody a check."

On The Funny Side

Friend In Need

In Indiana, Gov. George C. Cook announced that he had no intention of trying to catch the man who lives off the crumbs from the benches he eats at his desk. "You're entitled to your friend in this office."

Truth in Advertising

A help-wanted ad appeared in the St. Peter, Minn. Herald: "Man to handle dynamite. Must be prepared to travel unexpectedly."

New Malady

Solemnly, an Atlantic, Ga., or, possibly, worried that the young, television-addicted nation is suffering from "television maladjustment," an abnormal positioning of teeth that may be caused when a child cradles his jaw in his hand while he watches TV.

Invitation

In Little Rock, Ark., a child took $14.20 from the "Mead" T-shirt in a restaurant.

Now, See This

The St. Joseph, Mo., News Press got an urgent request from a woman to reprint a news item it had published about her divorce because, she explained, "there's a fellow I think wants a date with me. He must have missed the first notice."

Proper Ties

In Miami, Fla., announcements were sent out for the engagement of Miss Elizabeth Coffin to Mr. Lloyd Maxwell Graves. In Fort Scott, Kan., Robert Locke and Beverly Key applied for a marriage. In Pittsburgh, Pa., Mr. O. K. Mummie and Miss Katie Kaeh received one.

For Short

In Chicopee, Mass., an army draftsman named Hippopotamistillosophous was promptly nicknamed "Mr. Alphonse."

The Idea

Understandably indignant, a man in Minneapolis, Minn., complained to police that he had been held up twice in the same evening by the same thief, who finally told him: "Why don't you go home?"

Enterprising Spirit

In Brownwood, Texas, a local firm painted a sign on the front of its building: "We are distributors of Unnecessary Gadgets for your car."

The Proof

A philosophical woman in Decatur, whose coat was accidentally sold for 50 cents by fellow workers at a rummage sale, announced: "If it wasn't worth more than 50 cents I guess I need a new one."

The Choice

In Chicago, Ill., an animal caretaker at the Lincoln Park Zoo, who quit to accept a better-paying job as a policeman, returned to the animals after 24 hours, announcing emphatically: "I'd rather contend with the wolves in the zoo than the people on the boulevards."

Sharpshooters

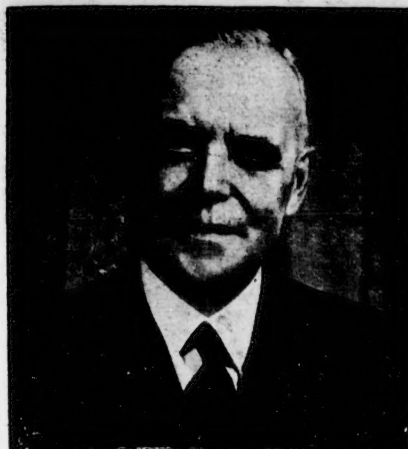

In San Francisco, Calif., curators at the Strydom Aquarium reported that the archerfish have been popping out the lights when they want to go to sleep at night by spitting streams of cold water on the hot bulbs above their tank.

Oops!

In Ithaca, N.Y., the meteorologist in charge of a U.S. Weather Bureau station at Albany, arrived late for a date to speak at a luncheon, had to explain that he had been delayed by unexpected deather.

The Load

A weary woman in Santa Monica, Calif., won her divorce after testifying that her 230-pound husband, a professional body builder and owner of a string of muscle-building gyms, made her carry out the garbage, mow the lawn, and do all the weight lifting in the family.

Rt. Hon. Louis St. Laurent Opens Exhibition.

Record Crowd Hear Prime Minister Open Edmonton Jubilee Exhibition

EDMONTON—Though cloudy skies and threatening weather curtailed the overall attendance at the Exhibition turnstiles, a record number of patrons were on hand in the grandstand to take in the chuck-wagon races and hear the prime minister's opening address.

A crowd of 37,106 attended the opening day's activities at Edmonton's 75th Anniversary Exhibition, 239 less than last year's 37,345 patrons. grand-stand activities showed an increased number of spectators pass through their turnstiles. A total of $,562 were on hand for the evening attractions.

Race fans this year pushed more money through the wickets Monday than did last year's opening crowd $111,042 compared to last year's $99,971. There were more bettors on hand last year too, 4,005 compared to this year's opening day throng of 3,814.

Crowds started to move into the fair grounds shortly after the huge parade in the morning, and crowds were still present at midnight. The midway and concession booths were ready for the hordes of happy fair-goers and during the supper hour the concession booths did a rushing business.

In his address to the more than 3500 patrons, the Prime Minister praised the spirit and thought and effort that went into the Exhibition. Introduced by Mr. Lawrence Rye, Exhibition president, this Prime Minister was presented with a scroll outlining the occasion of the visit and the honor felt by the association and citizens in having him open the anniversary celebration.

Expressing his regret at not having witnessed the parade in the morning, the Prime Minister went on to say, "I understand that your fair is not only a place where town and country meet but a place where competitive spirit exists and that is good." Mr. St. Laurent

THIEVES HAVE BUSY NIGHT—BREAK INTO TWO HOMES

MORINVILLE—Two trucks were reported stolen and two homes broken into and entered during the night of Sunday, July 12 at Morinville.

A. R. Martel had his panel delivery truck stolen but it was recovered intact the next day in the northern outskirts of the town.

Chevalier Brothers reported to Constable Meunier that their Dodge half-ton truck was stolen from their yard the same evening. It has not been recovered to date.

Thieves broke into Gustave Ricard's residence by forcing a window open on the west side of the house. Nothing was reported stolen except for a blanket which was hanging on the clothesline. The blanket was recovered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Chevalier which was also broken into and entered.

Thieves gained entry there by removing a screen and forcing open a window on the east side. Miss Lorraine Chevalier, 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chevalier, was sleeping on the chesterfield at the time and the lights were on. Thirty dollars in travellers cheques and eight dollars in cash were stolen from a purse belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Chevalier's guest, Mrs. Bill William. Constable Meunier notified the RCMP who are investigating.

When people go to resort hotels for a change and rest, the bell boy gets the change and the hotel gets the rest.

concluded with, "Not knowing just how you go about opening an exhibition I am going to declare this 75th Edmonton Exhibition now officially open."

Included in his party was his son, Jean Paul St. Laurent. He was accompanied by Hon. George Prud'homme, Minister of Mines and Technical Surveys.
